

Suicide prevention in juvenile correctional facilities

Date: 2012(For resources, this is the publication date. For programs, this is the date posted.)

Information

Type: Webinar/Presentation

Author: Suicide Prevention Resource Center (SPRC)

Publisher: Education Development Center (EDC)

See This Resource

Suicide prevention in juvenile correctional facilities: Pt 1 [1]

Suicide prevention in juvenile correctional facilities: Pt 2 [2]

This two-part webinar series guides juvenile justice administrators and staff in creating and implementing suicide prevention policies within juvenile detention facilities. It describes the demographic and facility characteristics of juvenile suicide and teaches the eight critical components of a sound suicide prevention policy: staff training; intake screening and ongoing assessment; communication; housing; levels of supervision; intervention; reporting and mortality review.

Links within this resource

[1] https://edc.adobeconnect.com/_a1002235226/p7jx8fve8z1/?launcher=false&fcsContent=true&pbMode=normal

[2] https://edc.adobeconnect.com/_a1002235226/p8kfm1joo28/?launcher=false&fcsContent=true&pbMode=normal

Printed on 05/14/2021 from <https://sprc.org/resources-programs/suicide-prevention-juvenile-correctional-facilities>