Website Launch: Global Construction Industry Suicide Prevention

January 22, 2021
News Type: Weekly Spark, Weekly Spark Announcement

United Suicide Survivors International (US) [1] and Sally Spencer-Thomas [2] have launched a website [3] to prevent suicide in the global construction industry. It offers resources to help companies, professional associations, and construction leaders prevent suicide and promote well-being among workers.

Links within this resource
[1] https://unitesurvivors.org/

Printed on 03/14/2021 from https://sprc.org/news/website-launch-global-construction-industry-suicide-prevention